

DIRECTOR OF CEMFI
CALL FOR EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST

Centro de Estudios Monetarios y Financieros (CEMFI) is an institution whose aims are graduate education and research in economics. CEMFI was created by the Bank of Spain in 1987, and it became an independent non-profit foundation in 1991. The Board of Trustees is chaired by the Governor of the Bank of Spain.

CEMFI organizes a graduate program leading to the degrees of Master in Economics and Finance and PhD in Economics. The current faculty comprises 19 members plus 2 Postdoctoral Fellows. CEMFI is located in a beautiful listed building dating from 1887 in a quiet area in the centre of Madrid close to the Prado Museum.

CEMFI is inviting expressions of interest for the position of Director. The appointment will be for a period of five years, renewable once. In the case of an external candidate, he/she will be appointed Full Professor. Applicants should have a strong record of scholarly achievement in economics, and management and executive leadership capacities. They should be able to speak and write in English and Spanish.

Candidates should send a CV and a cover letter with the names of two references to directorsearch@cemfi.es by 15 May 2022. CEMFI is committed to increasing the diversity of its faculty and staff. Expressions of interest by members of underrepresented groups are welcome and strongly encouraged. Questions may be directed to the Secretary of the Board at secretario.general@bde.es.

A committee appointed by the Board and chaired by the Governor of the Bank of Spain will review the candidates and make a proposal to the Board, which will decide the appointment.
